Please disclose all financial relationships that you have had in the past 24 months with ineligible companies (see definition below). For each financial relationship, enter the name of the ineligible company and the nature of the financial relationship(s). There is no minimum financial threshold; please disclose ALL financial relationships, regardless of the amount, with ineligible companies. You should disclose all financial relationships regardless of the potential relevance of each relationship to the education.

The Standards for Integrity and Independence require that individuals who refuse to provide this information be disqualified from involvement in the planning and implementation of accredited continuing education. Thank you for your diligence and assistance.

After we receive your disclosure information, we will review it to determine whether your financial relationships are relevant to the education. Please note: the identification of relevant financial relationships does not necessarily mean that you are unable to participate in the planning and implementation of this educational activity. Rather, the accreditation standards require that relevant financial relationships are mitigated before you assume your role in this activity.

Name of Ineligible Company <small>An ineligible company is any entity whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients, including compounding pharmacies that manufacture proprietary compounds, 503B pharmacies, and FDA-registered manufacturers.</small>	Nature of Financial Relationship <small>Examples of financial relationships include employee, researcher, consultant, advisor, speaker, independent contractor (including contracted research), royalties or patent beneficiary, executive role, and ownership interest. Individual stocks and stock options should be disclosed; diversified mutual funds do not need to be disclosed. Research funding from ineligible companies should be disclosed by the principal or named investigator even if that individual's institution receives the research grant and manages the funds.</small>	Is the content of the Educational Program related to the products of the Ineligible Company? <small>If yes, please check the box in this column.</small>	Has the Relationship Ended? <small>If the financial relationship existed during the last 24 months but has now ended, please check the box in this column.</small>
